ABOUT THE DROSTDY HOTEL

Graaff-Reinet was established in 1786 and has become a sought-after destination for its country charm and hospitality. It is well-known for its blend of Cape Dutch, Victorian and Karoo architecture. Another drawcard is the Camdeboo National Park which surrounds the town almost entirely and boasts spectacular wildlife and natural scenery, such as the Valley of Desolation.

The Drostdy's wedding co-ordinator and experienced staff will happily assist in customising your wedding for you. We can create an intimate ceremony for two or a grand-scale family production for up to 120 guests.

The hospitality staff and thoughtful touches will leave you relaxed and ready to enjoy your momentous day. The Drostdy's wedding co-ordinator will advise and guide you through every detail of your event, from entertainment to tailored menus, dates, event schedules, photography, flowers, table decor and spa and beauty treatments.

Fun and relaxing activities and excursions for you and your wedding party can be customised for your group, along with any other aspects of your wedding experience at the hotel.
